

TRAINING TEAM EFFECTIVENESS

Our program is all about building trust in the team. We focus on those team aspects that directly support people in deepening relationships and connections to cooperate more meaningful and effective towards shared goals. In an interactive setting participants explore their own and each others (un)conscious abilities to widen their range of effective communication skills and anchor these qualities in the team.

Key elements in our training:

- making meaningful connections
- listening with empathy and attention
- sharing (un)conscious expectations
- discussing values and drivers
- analysing team qualities and relations
- exploring conscious choice moment
- mapping the ecosystem
- having courageous conversations
